Friendship: The Universal Language

"Tack"

In past years, Bexley High School has had the pleasure of hosting foreign exchange students from various countries who have come to the United States through the American Field Service program. This year Bexley was host to Olle Muhrbeck, a senior, from Stockholm, Sweden. Olle lived with Dr. and Mrs. Jack Silberstein and their son, Bruce, also a senior this year.

The American Field Service is an organization which selects students from America and other continents and gives them the opportunity to make their homes in foreign lands. Those students coming to America cross the seas by boat or plane and spend three days in New York City at the American Field Service Headquarters. They then are dispersed throughout the country to enter their new homes and communities. At the end of their visits, they are again joined together in small groups to take bus trips. At this time, caravans of three or four buses travel through the United States, allowing the students to see many parts of the country and meet many people from each of its sections. The two week trip is culminated with a visit to Washington, D.C., and a handshake from the President.

This year, Olle participated in many school activities. He talked at many of the club meetings about the life and people of his country. These talks gave each Bexley student a better understanding of himself and of other peoples of the world. Certainly, both Olle and the students at Bexley have profited from this experience; it is one that will not be easily forgotten.

Last summer, Debby Kayne, a senior at Bexley, had the opportunity to stay with a family in Sao Paulo, Brazil, for three months. She, too, found this a very enriching experience.

The American Field Service has offered to these two students, and to all Bexley students, the opportunity to serve as ambassadors for their nation. The benefits of these exchanges are mutual—all people concerned are more aware of the powerful forces striving for better relations between countries, for world friendship, and for world peace.

Student Council

The student government organization at Bexley High School is the Student Council. This group is composed of council officers, defeated candidates for these offices, class officers, president of the Student Health Council, and homeroom representatives. Serving as officers this year were Jim Nowacki, president; Robin Wells, vice-president; and Arloa Shultz, secretary-treasurer. Mr. David Weis served as faculty advisor. Under the able guidance of these people, Student Council enjoyed an active and profitable year.

The council activities began during the summer with four successful open houses held in the school parking lot. The council also sponsored the Bexley representative to Buckeye Boys' State.

The first major activities of the school year were the homecoming festivities. The election, bonfire, parade, float contest, and homecoming dance were all organized and executed by Student Council. The council once again decorated the halls for Christmas and supervised the collection of Christmas baskets for the South Side Settlement House. The Christmas season was culminated with the annual New Year's Eve dance held at the Jeffrey Mansion.

The second annual Alumni Day was held in early January. Bexley graduates were invited to the school in order to talk with students about their respective schools. Each student had an opportunity to talk with a maximum of three representatives and in this way to obtain a better understanding of college life.

This year, the Student Council organized an Alumni Association. By means of this organization, classes will be able to organize periodic reunions. The Student Council and the senior class officers from each class will serve as the nucleus of the association.

In addition to their many other activities, Student Council again sponsored an American Field Service Day in order to acquaint students with the AFS program. The council also revised the Lion Life, a booklet published for the purpose of helping students adjust to life at Bexley High. Other activities included the management of the popcorn and apple machines, the cafeteria, the parking lot, and the locker policy.

Planning the next Student Council meeting are officers Jim, Arloa, and Robin.

Student Health Council

The Student Health Council of Bexley High School has a two-fold purpose: to inform the students of health problems and to promote good health standards in the school.

Four major projects highlighted the council's activities for the year 1964-65. The United Appeals drive was sponsored by the council this fall at which time contributions were accepted from students and teachers. The money was used to aid various organizations, including settlement houses and recreation centers. The council also collected cards from every student giving emergency information, such as preference of doctor and hospital in the case of sudden illness. Before the Christmas vacation, the council organized a blood donor drive in Bexley to help alleviate serious shortages of blood during the holiday season. Finally, in May, Student Health Council sponsored the annual tuberculin skin test, administered to the Junior Class at Bexley High.

The council is composed of two boys and two girls from each class who are selected in their freshman year to serve in the organization for four years. This year a Red Cross delegate from Bexley also served on the council as a non-voting member.

Officers for the year 1964-65 were Paula Young, president; Brent Blackshaw, vice-president; and Carolyn Schneider, secretary-treasurer. Miss Love and Mrs. Manly served as advisors.

National Honor Society

March eleventh's National Honor Society assembly honored thirty-three students who had excelled in the areas of character, scholarship, leadership, and service throughout their high school careers. The eleven juniors who were inducted were in the upper sixth of their class, while the twenty seniors all had above three point averages. To be chosen a member of National Honor Society is the highest honor Bexley High School can bestow.

Sponsor of the society, Mrs. Antoinette Barr, planned the ceremony in conjunction with the eleven seniors who had become members in their junior year. These seniors gave short speeches concerning character, scholarship, leadership, and service as well as the meaning of the symbol of the organization and the history of the society. The ceremony was concluded with a few words by Mrs. Barr and Mr. Jones, followed by the induction of the newly elected members. After the ceremony, a reception was held for the relatives of the honored students.

TORCH

The 1965 TORCH staff added their publication to the long list of outstanding papers by Bexley High School. The TORCH has received the All-American rating for eleven out of the past twelve semesters.

Heading the staff this year were co-editors Bob Greene and Judy Furman. The staff included Jon Kaplan, page one editor; Marcia Ziskind, page two editor; Marc Gertner, page three editor; Jack Roth, sports; Dianne Kushner, features; Alice Schottenstein, club editor; Stan Cohen, business manager; Maury Topolosky, circulation manager and Bill Murphey, photographer. Mrs. Sara Amos was advisor for the group.

In addition to the publication of the newspaper, two dances were sponsored by the TORCH—one after a football game and the annual Valentine Dance at which the King and Queen of Hearts were crowned. This year the TORCH staff again published the Dial-a-Date, the student telephone directory which is a greatly appreciated convenience for the student body. Finally, the TORCH sponsored the sale of Junior Prom, a new teen-age magazine for the students of Franklin County, published through the cooperation of the Columbus Citizen-Journal.

BEXLEO

The 1964-65 BEXLEO staff endeavored to produce a yearbook in the tradition of past years. Norma Meizlish, editor-in-chief, headed the staff. She was ably assisted by Sandra DeLong, literary editor; Jim Davis, managing editor; Chuck Hoffhine, photography editor; and Pam Nichols, art editor. The rest of the staff included Nancy Schoedinger, senior section; Charla Collier and Sally Shurlow, classes; Jessie Mordoff, faculty and student government; Susan Bryant and Susan Koebel, social; Marilyn Glick and Toby Kahn, club section; Ellen Williams, girls' sports; and Ed Scheiderer and Robin Wells, boys' sports.

The theme of the 1965 BEXLEO was based on the spectrum. Bexley High offers students a wealth of opportunity, and, in a sense, the school is a prism through which students' activities are directed and diversified. The theme was evident throughout the book, on the cover designed by Pam Nichols, and on the divider pages.

Besides publishing the yearbook, the staff managed the concessions for the homecoming football game against Urbana, from which the proceeds were used to purchase a new camera.

Mrs. Marilyn D. Trishman served as the advisor for the BEXLEO staff this year. Her patience and guidance was greatly appreciated.

Looking at the finished product, Nancy Schoedinger, Norma Meizlish, and Jim Davis recall months of planning and enjoyment.

Y-Teens

Teaching its members the meaning of world fellowship is the main purpose of Y-Teens. The club advocates the personal growth of its members, the growth of the brotherhood of mankind, and the growth of love and knowledge of God.

Y-Teens "In the Comic Strips" rush party at Jeffrey Mansion opened a successful year for the organization. At the party, the cabinet was introduced in a skit which portrayed comic strip characters.

Two city-wide fund raising projects were held during the year. The first was the annual Hootenanny at Veterans Memorial on January 30. The Four Dimensions represented Bexley. Money from this event went to the Interclub Council World Fellowship Committee. The second project took place on March 27 and on April 3, when members sold donuts.

Other activities at the Y.W.C.A. included the Fall Roll Call Rally, the Public Affairs Conference on "Sex and Morality," and the annual leadership conference.

Among the activities which the Y-Teens at Bexley sponsored was the Thanksgiving Assembly planned by the Worship Committee. Y-Teens also held two dances: Ugly Man's on February 27, and the Sadie Hawkins Dance on April 24, at Mulbarger's farm. Other social events included "Around the World In 80 Dishes," a Mothers' Day Tea at which the new officers were inducted, the Senior Farewell honoring graduating members, and the annual overnight at the South Side Y Camp in May.

GAC Officers: Joyce Knupke, Carolyn Schneider, Kathy Lackritz, Cathy Malloy, Kathy Bellingham.

GAC

Fun and excitement began the Girls Athletic Club's busy season at its rush party entitled "Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World of GAC." Dressed accordingly, the girls enjoyed a picnic dinner at Jeffrey Mansion.

At GAC's annual Hockey Night, the Juniors were victorious after a close game against the Seniors. To help celebrate the Christmas season and as a fund raising project, a successful bake sale was held. A rummage sale and a paper drive were two other major fund raising projects that GAC undertook this year. The Junior Class once more proved their athletic ability by winning the Basketball Class Night. Again it was an exciting game with the Juniors beating the Seniors by one point in the overtime. Following the game, Kathy Bellingham was crowned 1965 Sports Queen by basketball captain Bill Salt.

This year GAC held a volleyball invitational. Various schools in the Columbus area were invited to Bexley to compete in the tournaments.

The Girls Athletic Club is in charge of all intramural sports activities at Bexley. Homeroom volleyball and girls and boys basketball teams vied for the school championships under the direction of Kathy Bellingham, intramural manager. In April a fine synchronized swimming show was presented.

As in the past, the GAC Banquet in May ended the year's program. The old officers completed their term of office, and new ones were installed. This year's officers were Joyce Knupke, president; Carolyn Schneider, vice-president; Kathy Lackritz, secretary; Cathy Malloy, treasurer; and Kathy Bellingham, intramural manager. Miss Love and Mrs. Rogers served as advisors.

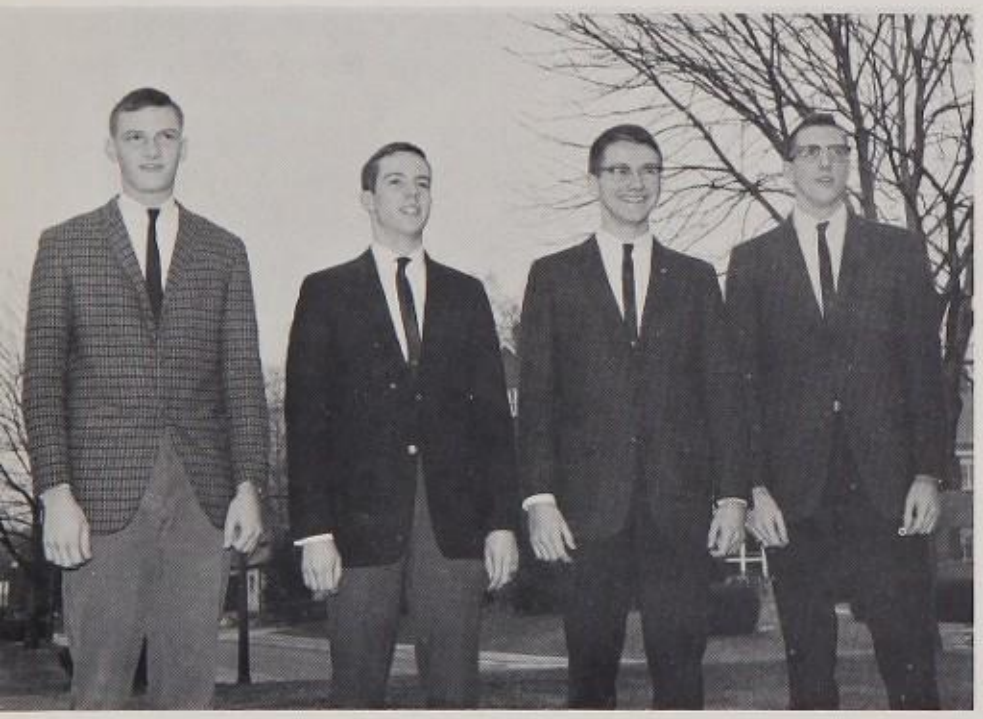
Pep Club officers: Peggy Hoyer, Patty Buker, Sandy Erkis.

Patty and Kathy join pep men in promoting school spirit.

Pep Club

The Pep Club of 1964-65 worked diligently to create and promote school spirit. Committees headed by cabinet members of the club were established to make posters, locker tags, and banners in honor of the participants in the various sports. With the aid of Mr. Frank Loehnert, Jr., Pep Club initiated the sale of basketball programs in order to serve the school. In future years, the club plans to enlarge and improve upon this worthwhile project. Other undertakings of the club included aiding the cheerleaders with pep rallies, teaching new cheers to club members, and in general encouraging student participation and attendance at sports events.

Pep Club was under the leadership of Patricia Buker, president; Peggy Hoyer, vice-president; and Sandy Erkis, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Rogers served as club advisor.



Hi-Y officers: John Stroefer, Chuck Hoffhine, Dan Sharky, Ed Scheiderer.

Hi-Y seniors and advisor admire trophy.

Hi-Y

Hi-Y, under the leadership of president Ed Scheiderer, participated in many activities both within and outside of Bexley High School. Ed was supported enthusiastically by the members of the Club and by his fellow officers—John Stroefer, vice-president; Dan Sharky, secretary-treasurer; and Chuck Hoffhine, chaplain.

The Bexley chapter of Hi-Y was particularly active this year in the affairs of the city and state Hi-Y organizations. The members participated in the state-wide Hi-Y Youth in Government Day, in the city-wide Hi-Y City Government Day in Columbus, and in other Columbus metropolitan Hi-Y activities. The Bexley club also sponsored athletic teams in basketball and volleyball to participate in the Columbus Hi-Y League. As a service project the members of Hi-Y held a World Service candy sale to raise money for Y.M.C.A. work abroad. The two final events of the year were the Hi-Y, Faculty and the Hi-Y - Y-Teens basketball games, both of which provided much entertainment for the student body.

BAA officers: Bill Callif, David Dachner, John Forman, Phil Durschnitt.

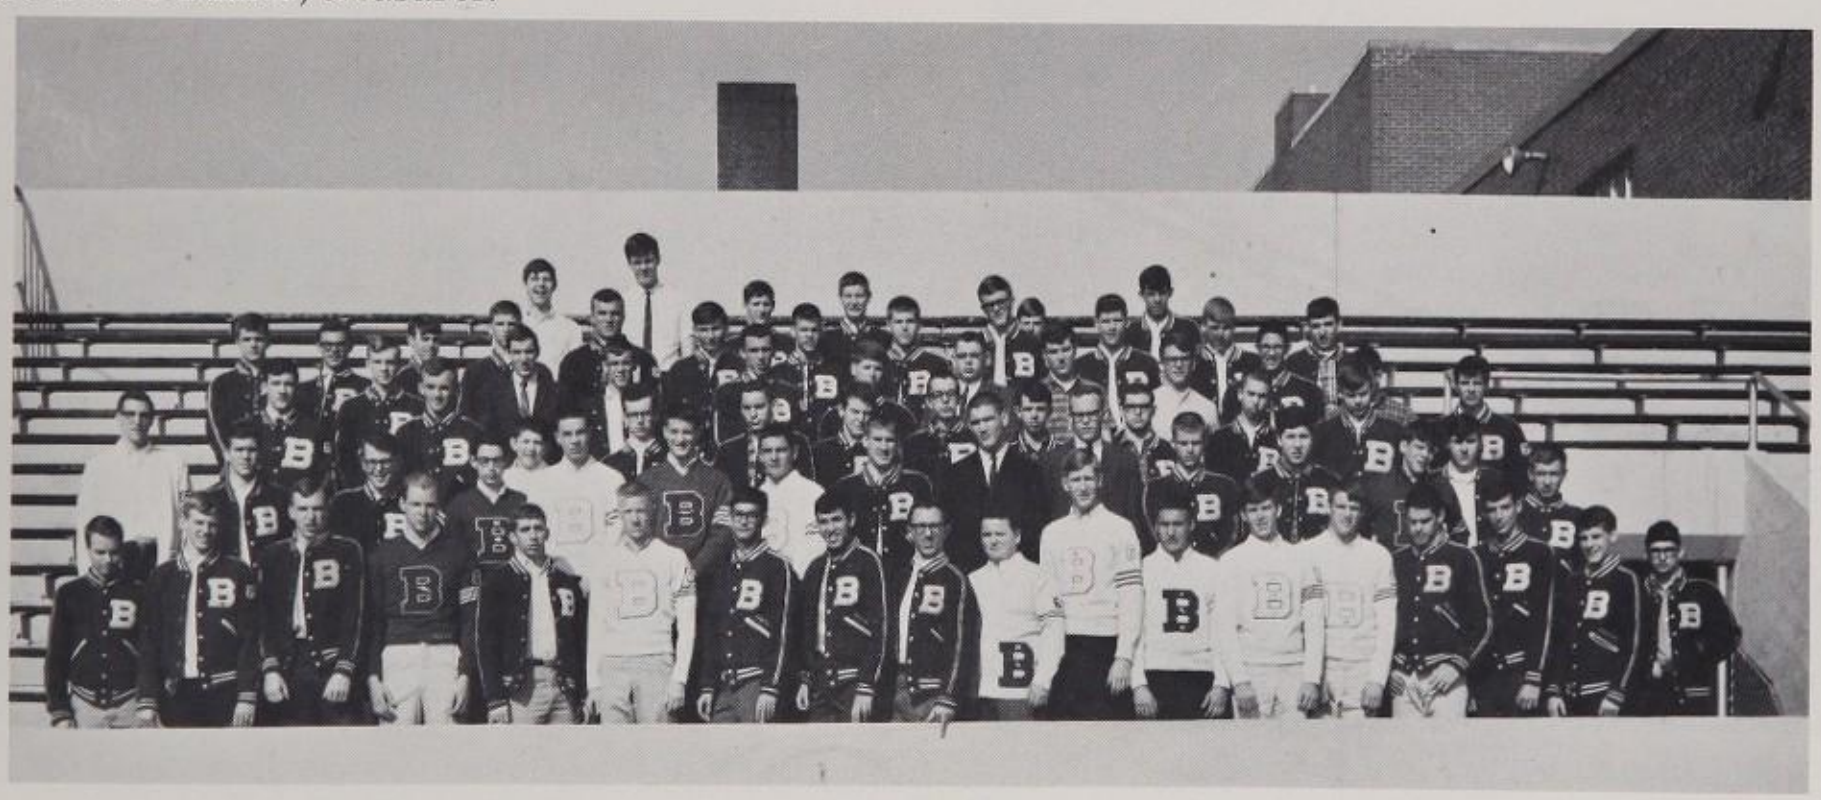
Boys' Athletic Association

The Boys' Athletic Association, a relatively new organization at Bexley, successfully sponsored many new activities during the year. All boys were encouraged to join; however, the club was organized primarily to provide competitive sports activity for those boys not involved in varsity sports. In order to do this, intramural sports with two sportsheads for each sport were organized, and tournaments were held throughout the year. The sports included were touch football, basketball, baseball, table tennis, badminton, and tennis. BAA joined with GAC to sponsor a volleyball tournament, as well as a mixed doubles table tennis tournament. The winning volleyball team competed with four teams from different schools on Volleyball Day in April. Another main event for BAA was the participation in the Invitational Bowling Tournament, in which Bexley competed with other schools in the area. Finally, BAA sponsored a foul-shooting tournament for boys during the noon hour. Hopefully this is to become an annual event.

Club officers were Phil Durschnitt, president; Bill Callif, vice-president; John Forman, secretary; and David Dachner, treasurer.



Varsity B

Varsity B

The Varsity B Club, composed of Bexley athletes who have won letters in varsity sports, is primarily a recognition organization and sponsors no regular club functions during the year. Athletes are automatically inducted into the club as soon as they have won a varsity letter. The varsity sports at Bexley included football, basketball, swimming, wrestling, track, baseball, tennis, and golf. The sign of a member of the Varsity B Club is the large "B" which appears on either the letter jacket or the letter sweater of the Lion athletes. Second year members are awarded with belt buckles, and third year members receive trophies.

Membership in the club serves as an incentive for Bexley athletes to improve their skill and sportsmanship.

Le Cercle Français enjoys another party.

French Club officers: Bruce Silberstein, Nancy Zipser, Ellen Williams, Debby Talis.

French Club

Le Cercle Français began a most successful year with a rush party at Jeffrey Mansion. More than sixty enthusiastic French students took sack dinners to the party and later participated in a French version of the American game of Bingo. Throughout the remainder of the year, the club provided many educational and interesting programs for its members. At one meeting, Olle Muhrbeck, Bexley's American Field Service student from Sweden, spoke about his country and answered questions posed by club members. Another especially interesting meeting was that held with the Spanish Club during which slides were shown of both Mexico and Paris.

Officers of Le Cercle Français this year were Ellen Williams, president; Nancy Zipser, vice-president; Debby Talis, secretary-treasurer; Bruce Silberstein, program chairman; and Mrs. Mead and Mr. Munselle, advisors.

Latin Club induction of new members.

Latin Club officers: Dianne Loehnert, Fritz Laird, Hannah Frankel, Sharon Prée.

Latin Club

The initiation service in February of first-year Latin students marked the beginning of Latin Club's agenda for the year. Students who joined the club had all maintained an "A" average during their first semester of Latin.

In March, members of Latin Club joined other Latin students from Columbus schools for a banquet held at the Youth Center on the fairgrounds. The annual J.C.L. Convention was held on March 26 at the Ohio State University. Bexley's participants were invited to give an original skit, "All Roads Lead From Rome." This skit had been awarded first place winner by the Classical Department of the Ohio State University. The annual Latin Club banquet in May concluded the events for the year.

Officers for the club of 1964-65 were Hannah Frankel, president; Dianne Loehnert, vice-president; Sharon Prée, secretary; and Fritz Laird, treasurer. The club advisor was Miss Wylie.

Spanish Club officers: Ron Grove, vice president; Nancy Kelley, secretary; Linda Ahrens, president; Eric Ault, treasurer.

Spanish Club

Spanish Club opened the year with its annual rush party in September, held at Jeffrey Mansion. The next major event on the club's calendar was the "Pinata" party in December, at which time the members attempted to break open the paper mache pinata. The purpose of the party was to promote a better understanding of the culture and customs of the Spanish-speaking countries, as well as to have fun.

At the beginning of the new year, Spanish Club sponsored a dance, which served as the club's fund-raising project. Later during the year a joint meeting was held with French Club, and a bake sale was sponsored for which members were asked to donate home baked goods.

Finally, the new officers of the club were recognized at the Spanish Club banquet in May. Leading the club this year were Linda Ahrens, president; Ron Grove, vice-president; Nancy Kelley, secretary; Eric Ault, treasurer; and Mr. L. Smith, advisor.

FTA officers: Sandra DeLong, president; Jean Grevenow, treasurer; Mimi Deaton, vice-president; Bev Slatzer, secretary.

Future Teachers of America

The Future Teachers of America Association engaged in numerous activities throughout the 1964-65 year. The members profited greatly from the speeches and advice of guest speakers concerning the different levels of education. The members gained further experience by observing classes and by aiding teachers in the elementary and junior high schools. The club sponsored a successful dance, "The Turkey Trot," after the first home basketball game, and it also introduced a new service to Bexley High School—the student paperback bookstore. This book gallery proved to be a most worthwhile project since it not only greatly aided the student body but it also augmented the treasury of F.T.A. The year was ended with the traditional Teachers' Tea in May, at which the new officers of the club were inducted. F.T.A. was led this year by Sandra DeLong, president; Mimi Deaton, vice-president; Jean Grevenow, treasurer; Beverly Slatzer, secretary; and Mrs. Sanders, advisor.

Bexley hosts neighboring schools at a special Dramatics Club meeting.

Dramatics Club officers: Marcie Kaplan, Bill Brust, Carol Lubin, Sylvia Dozer, Judy Engelman.

Dramatics Club

Dramatics Club began its busy schedule for 1964-65 with guest speaker, Sally Jones Sexton, producer of Playhouse on the Green. Later in the year, another guest speaker, Wayne Byers, newscaster for WBNS, presented interesting insights into the production of television programs. At other meetings, movies or programs were focused on lighting, directing, and other phases of theatre production. Some improvisional work was also done by members of the club. As a community service, members worked twice a month at Children's Hospital reading stories and performing skits for the patients.

In April, Dramatics Club presented its production of George Washington Slept Here, starring Bill Cohen and Sharon Smith. Much work and effort went into this project to make it an excellent performance. A second highlight of the year was a joint meeting with Dramatics Club members of Worthington, Upper Arlington, and Eastmoor. The season terminated with a banquet and induction of new members into the National Thespian Society.

Music Club officers: Betsy Frampton, Sylvia Dozer, Janet McCleary.

George Beverly entertains at a Music Club meeting.

Music Club

Music Club meetings proved to be interesting and entertaining. Some of the special programs for the meetings included a male folk trio from Upper Arlington, "The Travelers"; a piano concert by George Beverly; a vocal ensemble from the Columbus School for Girls; and a demonstration by the Bell Choir of the First Congregational Church.

During the Christmas holiday season, members of Music Club participated in Kinder Key Caroling. They continued to spread the holiday spirit by having a party for the orphans of the Hannah Neil Mission. The Club sponsored a successful dance, "The Basket Ball," after the last home game of the basketball season; and finally, in the spring, Music Club held a hootenanny-picnic.

Leaders of the club for the year were Sylvia Dozer, president; Janet McCleary, vice-president; Betsy Frampton, secretary-treasurer; and Mr. Myers, advisor.

Art Club officers: Sue Brock, Pam Nichols, Dave Cooke

Sue and George apply their talents.

Art Club

Art Club began a successful year when commercial artist, Jack Haunty, came to Bexley to talk to members about art in advertising. Throughout the rest of the year the club went on various field trips, including a visit to the Columbus Art Gallery to see the Jean Grotte exhibition, and a visit to the Bexley Art Guild's third annual exhibition. At one of the meetings, Mr. Trivella, Art Club advisor, showed slides of Scandinavia. Members refinished picture frames and had their own art exhibit. In order to raise money, Bexley pennants were sold, and a successful "Winter Wonderland" dance was held after a basketball game.

Art Club served other school projects through its work on the scenery for the Band Parents' Show, and the set for George Washington Slept Here. Finally, as a completely new project, the club displayed nine different paintings in the lounge in order to encourage art appreciation among students.

History Club

Organized by Mr. Poetker the second semester, History Club is geared to the above average World History or American Civilization student. The members attempted to acquaint themselves with various interpretations of significant aspects of American history. Meetings were held once a month, during which students discussed the views presented by the particular historians they had read. Led by co-chairmen Mark Bookspan and Norma Meizlish, these discussions served both to supplement the members' knowledge of history and to expose them to the type of seminar approach used in many college history classes.

Science Club officers: Kurt Krauss, Mike Halpern, Judy Hagler, Jeff Shuster.

Fred Spohn and Judy Hagler prepare for Science Fair.

Science Club

The purpose of Science Club is to encourage and develop an interest and appreciation of the sciences among Bexley students.

The major event for this year's club was the Annual Science Exhibit held on March eleventh. The students displayed science projects, which were given ratings by qualified judges. The club also sponsored two speakers, Prof. Ralph Bond and Colonel Jack Nole, who spoke respectively on geology and aerodynamics. Through such educational programs, as movies and field trips, the club members enjoyed both a learning and a social experience. Finally, on January 29, the club sponsored an "Inner Extensions" dance in order to raise money for the year.

Leading the club this year were Judy Hagler, president; Mike Halpern, vice-president; Kurt Krauss, secretary; and Jeff Schuster, treasurer. Mr. West served as advisor for the club this year.

Debate Club

Bexley High School's Debate Club is composed of members who are interested in the art of public speaking and debating. The 1964-65 debate team had as its captain Rob Solomon, and as its coach, James Eliopolus. The team finished the past season with an overall record of nineteen wins and eleven losses. The negative component of the team, Rob Solomon and Mike Halpern, won thirteen of its fifteen debates. Junior Linda Schneider and senior Bob Schwartz, debating for the affirmative, won six of their fifteen contests. The Bexley debaters participated in tournaments at Columbus Central, Grove City, Worthington, and Columbus School for Girls. They also were hosts for a tournament at Bexley. At Grove City, the debaters won the first place trophy with a record of six wins and no losses. The team placed second at the Bexley tournament with a record of four wins and two defeats. The topic discussed by the debaters this year was "Resolved: Nuclear Weapons Should Be Controlled By An International Organization."

Quill and Scroll

Each year the International Journalistic Society, Quill and Scroll, recognizes those members of the BEXLEO and TORCH staffs who have shown special interest in their work on these publications.

A "B" average and a recommendation from the journalism advisors are the requirements for membership in the society.

At this year's annual Journalism Banquet held in May, approximately twenty-four members of Quill and Scroll were inducted and honored in a short ceremony.

Thespians

In 1955, the National Thespian Society was established for the purpose of rewarding and recognizing those students showing interest and demonstrating conscientious work in dramatics.

In order to be eligible for membership in the society, each person must earn ten points. These points may be collected by attending theatre performances or by working in connection with dramatic productions. Most of the National Thespian Society members inducted this year either performed in or helped with the production of the Dramatics Club spring presentation, George Washington Slept Here.

The members being inducted this year were recognized at the annual Dramatics Club picnic held in May.

Mr. Myers

Choir director, C. Robert Myers, has been instructing vocalists at Bexley High School for seventeen years. In addition to his duties as an English teacher, he prepares the choir and ensembles for approximately eighteen concerts per year.

A firm believer in the necessity of good discipline for fine musicianship, Mr. Myers has molded some of the finest choirs in the area. He is highly respected in his field and has served often as a judge at both district and state contests.

Due to Mr. Myers' efforts, the cultural horizons of Bexley students have been broadened, and all owe him a debt of gratitude.

Choir

Under the direction of C. Robert Myers, Bexley's Senior Choir performed a full schedule of concerts during the academic year.

At the annual Parents' Night, parents of choir members viewed demonstrations of the warm-up techniques and the methods by which music is learned in regular rehearsals.

As in past years, the choir participated in the Thanksgiving Assembly. Numerous engagements were filled during the Christmas season. The ensembles entertained at the Hannah Neil Mission and for the Bexley Women's Club. The full choir presented four concerts at Columbus Country Club as well as at the traditional Christmas Concert for the student body.

On April 30, one of the major highlights of the season, the Spring Concert, was held. Featured in the performance were Negro spirituals and the works of more recent composers such as Duke Ellington. Senior accompanists Sandra DeLong and Norma Meizlish played Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue" on twin pianos.

The final effort of the choir was the Baccalaureate Service honoring graduating seniors.

Due to the change in school hours and in order to give the mixed ensemble longer practice periods, choir rehearsals were held only three times a week. But the quality of performances was not appreciably affected, and a II rating was received in the district contest.

Officers of the choir were Norma Meizlish, president; Stan Cohen, vice-president; and Toppy Thomas, social chairman.

Symphonic Band

The band had an active and rewarding year under the direction of the new conductor, James Hartline.

For the band, the year began in late summer with practices for its performances at the half-times of the football games. Following the long football season, the band was transformed into a concert group. On December 20, it performed at the Christmas Concert during which a variety of traditional Christmas songs, from religious to light music, was presented. On February 12 and 13, the band presented the annual Band Parents' Show throughout which a stage band provided background music.

During the month of March, the band and its members performed often. On March 6, Bexley band students entered and received recognition in the district contest. On March 10, the entire band played a short concert for the combined meeting of the Bexley City Teachers Association and the Franklin County Education Association; and on March 12, the annual Spring Concert was held. At the end of the year, the band toured the Bexley elementary schools in order to demonstrate the various instruments and to give short concerts. A final performance was given at the annual Arts Festival at which the band, choir, and visual arts department were honored.

The Band banquet, given annually by the Band Parents in recognition of the band members, was held in April.

The officers of the seventy-one piece band this year were Henry Maston, president; David Skeen, vice-president; Rosalie Wamack, secretary-treasurer; and Janet McCleary, librarian.

FOOTBALL

Guided by the enthusiasm of Captain Jim Nowacki and the coaching staff under Donald DeJong, the Bexley Fighting Lions of 1964 worked hard to produce fine efforts when they were seemingly outmanned. Especially in the Mt. Vernon, Whitehall, and Arlington games, the Lions displayed spirit and performed well.

The first two games were dropped to Logan and Gahanna by scores of 34-0 and 32-15 respectively. Bexley fought stubbornly against Whitehall but lost in the final seconds, 7-0. After bowing to Worthington, 34-0 and to Mt. Vernon, 30-7, the Lions came back to win the Homecoming game against Urbana, 13-6. Bexley lost two hard-fought games to Delaware, 6-0, and to Grandview, 22-8. Against Arlington, in the final game of the season, the fighting Lions scored 19 points, but were beaten 48-19.

Gary Herwald was selected for the all-CBL first team, while David Herwald and Jim Nowacki received honorable mentions. Gary also received the Fred Medors Award. Jim Nowacki, Gary and Dave Herwald, and Joel Kaufher earned membership in the Shoulderpad Club.

Next year's fighting Lions will be captained by Woody Jones and Dave Herwald.

The Lions will play in a new league in the 1966 football season and, with renewed spirit and enthusiasm will attempt to bring winning seasons back to Bexley.

Basketball

The 1964-65 basketball season opened with a thriller against Gahanna, in which the Lions emerged victorious, 55-54. From that point, the Bexley cagers faced stronger opposition as Grove City and Urbana visited the Lions' den in the two following weeks. The Lions recorded their next victory at Whitehall with evenly distributed scoring and overall good defense. Worthington and Mt. Vernon proved to be stubborn opponents, and the Lions lost both by narrow margins. The Bexley cagers then avenged an earlier loss to Grandview by defeating the Bobcats, 52-51. After a bad night at Arlington, the Lions came on strong to outplay and outscore Worthington. Bexley then topped Mt. Vernon and went into the tournament with 7-10 record and momentum from victories in the last two games.

The Lions' spirit and enthusiasm showed up at the end of the season and the last four victories made the season a success. The final 9-11 record is the best at Bexley for many years of basketball, and Coach Millard's cagers of the next year intend to enlarge the win column even more.

This year's most improved player award went to Dave Frasch, while Capt. Bill Salt and Rob Wells received jointly the most valuable player award. Pat Lemmon and Mac McCloy were selected as co-captains for next year. Bill Salt was chosen to the All-CBL second team and also received honorable mention in the district. Mac Albin, Dave Frasch, and Rob Wells received honorable mention in the CBL. Records were set or tied for season high rebounding, single game high rebounding, and single game high scoring by Bill Salt, Mac Albin, and Rob Wells, respectively.

Swimming

The 1964-65 swimming team rewarded both itself and its coach, Mr. Owen, as it finished the season with a seven win and four loss record. Bexley tied for second place in the Central Ohio Swim League with a three-four league record. In the city relays, the tankers, captained by Greg Antle and Tom Miller, finished fourth. This year Mike Robins, Colby Crall, Dennis Maupin, and Pat Leach set a new school record in the two hundred yard freestyle relay with a time of one minute and forty seconds.

Co-captain Antle received the Most Valuable Swimmer Award and the Bob Connell Award, while the Most Improved Swimmer Award went to A. J. Myers.

Wrestling

The Bexley wrestling team showed some improvement this year as it ended the season with a record of four wins and eight losses. Coach Tenwalde saw his matmen finish sixth in the CBL with Tex Miller reaching the finals. Both Jim Kelley and Captain Rick Doty reached the regional finals. Doty completed an excellent mat season with an eleven-one record, contributing forty-three of the Lion team points.

The Most Valuable Wrestler Award went to Doty, while Dennis Walker received the Most Improved Player Award. Although this year's squad was relatively young, twelve grapplers received letters; and of these, eight lettermen will return next year.

Tennis

Tennis coach James Click built the 1965 tennis squad around five returning lettermen: Dave Frasch, captain Dan Dick, Gary Herwald, Mike Melton, and Ed Weston. Other top netters this past year were Chet Weld, Steve Grossman, and Mark Smilack. The team played its first match against Newark on April 21. Later in the season, Frasch, Dick and Melton were among the strong choices for placement in district competition. At the District Tournament, which was held at Ohio State University, Bexley was represented by two singles players and two doubles teams.

The team showed all the desire and ability necessary this year for a successful season in the CBL.

Golf

The Bexley golf team started slowly this spring as it dropped its first two matches to Delaware and Worthington. During spring vacation the linksters embarked on the annual North Carolina trip with Coach Smith at the wheel. Coach and the first four varsity golfers—Kotzin, Callif, Forman, and Tuckerman—spent each day of the week on a different course and utilized this spring training period to improve their games and to prepare themselves for the season. They returned full of anticipation for the coming matches.

Coach Smith interchanged his linksters so that Carl Poston, Rick Reinhorn, and Mark Shell also saw CBL action. Captain Kotzin was medalist at mid-season. Bexley again competed in the District Golf Match as it has done in past years.

Track

Although Coach Russ Owen called this year's track season a rebuilding one for the Lions, the thinclads opened their season with impressive victories despite bad weather.

This year's squad, led by co-captains Dan Vogel and Ed Scheiderer, also included returning lettermen Mac Albin, Rick Weber, Paul Davis, Greg Van Woert, and A. J. Myers. In addition, the squad had many other top prospects to fill vacancies in the dashes, field events, and hurdles.

The cindermen started their season with victories of 67-51 over Reynoldsburg and 92-26 over Grandview before they lost a close meet at Walnut Ridge. However, the Lions came back to defeat Hartley 71½-46½. Bexley's squad showed their strength by defeating several other schools which had their best track squads in several years.

Despite the early successes of the season, the thinclads found strong competition in the Whitehall and Arlington relays and the CBL meet. The team was gaining the experience necessary to improve upon the highly successful 1964 track season. Already strong were returning lettermen in the distance races, 440 yard dash, broad jump, and mile relay.

Baseball

Coach Perry Smith inaugurated his first year as the baseball coach with an exhibition victory over Watkins Memorial. The only other opponent prior to spring vacation was Lancaster. Bexley then played Academy and was defeated by the slim margin of 9-8, allowing the Vikings only three hits.

The team this year was young but displayed much poise, baseball know-how, and desire to win. Freshmen Jim Moriarty and Steve Wyman showed much promise, and sophomores Steve Stout and Carl Heinke proved to be valuable assets to the team. Juniors Charlie Burkam, Wayne Smith, Jay Worly, Cam Orr, Larry Snyder, Sonny Dargusch, and Woody Jones provided hitting strength and filled fielding positions well. Seniors Tim Greiner, Geoff Gold, and Bill Meeks completed the nucleus of the team.

The baseball team displayed much potential and under the fine direction of Coach Smith should be able to become a winning team in the next season.

The future is bright . . . Use it well

Do not dissipate with frivolity the wisdom you've learned. Set your goals and work toward them.

No, don't be an "all work and no play" advocate, but earn your leisure before you take it.

Remember, whatever growth you hope to attain has already set its roots in the past twelve years. What you become depends on the nourishment you feed those roots, and on your own tenacity of purpose.

A material part of your future depends largely on the savings and thrift habits you establish now. If you'd care to stop in we'd be pleased to share the benefits of our experience in these matters with you.
